Winning look!

Always balance out a cocoon shape with skinny leggings or denim

AMELIA THOMAS, 21, gives traditional tartan an update with a blast of acid-yellow from her Daite coat.

Why her look works: Amelia could've played it safe in her bright coat with patent sleeves by wearing black underneath. But her red Howells boots, tartan Topshop skirt and velvet body take this look up a notch.

You say: 'Love this look – from the hair right down to the boots. The jacket is gorgeously bright and the boots pick out the tartan skirt. Very cool, pretty girl!'

TERES ARVIDSSON, 30, has persuaded us that anoraks can be chic! Hers is from Swedish designer Max Jenny.

Why her look works: This anorak gets extra fashion points for its bright frilled collar and cool cocoon shape – its voluminous silhouette is balanced by slim leggings and neat brogues. Blue flashes add a fashion colour pop.

You say: 'Never did an anorak look so sexy and fashionable. And she proves it's how you wear something and not what you're wearing that counts.'
